

Japanese pub Kappougi to open in Aero Plaza at Kansai International Airport offering set meals during daytime and a Japanese pub experience at night

Kansai Airports is pleased to announce that on Thursday, May 31, 2018, Kappougi Kansai International Airport Aero Plaza Shop, a Japanese-style pub and restaurant, will open on the third floor of Aero Plaza at Kansai International Airport.

Featuring “good old home cooking” style of Japanese foods such as boiled foods and grilled fish, Kappougi is a Japanese-style pub and restaurant that offers homemade meals and alcohol in a warm and cozy atmosphere. The restaurant serves set meals typical of homemade Japanese dishes during daytime, and alcohol and monthly specials using seasonal ingredients at night. While Japanese customers will be able to “feel at home” with homemade style dishes, Kappougi will offer non-Japanese customers a classical Japanese-style pub experience.

Kansai Airports will continue to be committed to developing an exciting commercial area and to shaping a new journey experience with comfort and full of fun for customers at our airports.
