

Emirates to launch daily A380 services for KIX-Dubai route

Kansai Airports is excited to announce that Emirates will introduce daily scheduled double-decker A380 services between Kansai International Airport (KIX) and Dubai, United Arab Emirates, starting Sunday, October 28, 2018.

The Dubai-based carrier was the very first airline to launch the KIX-Dubai route in 2002, serving as a gateway to Arabic countries for Japan, and has been operating a daily return-flight ever since.

The Emirates' three-class configured A380 aircraft will offer a total of 489 seats: 399 spacious seats in Economy Class, 76 full-flat seats in Business Class and 14 private suites in First Class. In flight, up to 3,500 channels of audio and visual entertainment such as live programs, movies, TV shows and music will ensure that passengers have a comfortable and enjoyable flight experience.

Kansai Airports will continue to expand its network with airlines to provide all its guests with convenient, comfortable and enjoyable travel experiences.
