

Turkish Airlines to resume Kansai-Istanbul Route - Five-weekly flights starting from April 14, 2020

Kansai Airports is excited to announce that Turkish Airlines (TK) will resume five-weekly flights between Kansai International Airport (KIX) and Istanbul on April 14, 2020. With the 2020 Tokyo Olympics and Paralympics approaching, KIX and Turkey will be connected by direct flights for the first time since 2017.

The national flag carrier of Turkey – named Best Airline in Europe – serves the largest number of countries in the world. Istanbul, known as the bridge between East and West, is one of the popular destinations among Japanese. Straddling Europe and Asia, the city brings Eastern and Western cultures together and creates a magical atmosphere. As Istanbul Airport offers convenient connections to other countries, the upcoming launch is expected to further boost demand for air travel from Japan.

Kansai Airports will continue to expand its aviation network to deliver more convenient and comfortable travel experiences for all passengers.
