

NAKAU to open in KIX Aeroplaza with first-ever initiatives

Kansai Airports is delighted to announce that Japanese fast food restaurant NAKAU will open on Level 3 of Aeroplaza at Kansai International Airport (KIX) on September 26, 2019.

NAKAU is a popular Japanese restaurant chain with over 450 outlets across Japan. Specializing in donburi (rice bowls) with a wide variety of toppings as well as Kyoto-style udon noodles, they are dedicated to serving safe and healthy meals with quality hospitality at affordable prices while always pursuing excellence in taste and flavor.

Open for 24 hours to cater to all passengers' needs, the new restaurant will offer set menus for breakfast, lunch and dinner. They will also introduce touch panel terminals for ordering menus, their first initiative in Japan. Unlike the conventional meal-ticket vending machine, the touch panel terminal allows payment by credit card or digital money and supports four languages (Japanese, English, Korean and Chinese). Their first-ever initiatives also include offering a Kansai-inspired menu item only available at the on-airport restaurant, a meat soup dish "Nikusui" – Osaka's soul food.

Kansai Airports is committed to developing exciting and fun stores and restaurants in its airports to provide customers with an enjoyable and comfortable airport experience.
