

Fuji Dream Airlines to launch Kobe-Aomori service in March 2020

Kansai Airports is delighted to announce that Fuji Dream Airlines (JH) will launch a daily flight between Kobe and Aomori beginning March 29, 2020.

For the Shizuoka-based airline, Aomori will be the fourth destination from Kobe after Matsumoto, Izumo, and Kochi. The network of Kobe Airport will be further expanded with the addition of Kobe-Aomori service—the airport's second route to the Tohoku region after Sendai.

Kansai Airports Group is committed to expanding its aviation network to deliver a more convenient, comfortable and pleasant travel experience for all guests.

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai International Airport (“KIX”) and Osaka International Airport (“ITAMI”) from New Kansai International Airport Company (“NKIAC”) and has been operating the two airports since April 1, 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports’ wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport (“KOBE”) from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on April 1, 2018.

Under the concept of “One Kansai Airports Group”, Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
