

Kansai Airports Group's official mascot Sorayan debuts as LINE creators' sticker

Kansai Airports is delighted to announce that Sorayan stickers are now available for users of the LINE app operated by LINE Corporation. By joining LINE creators' stickers, Kansai Airports Group's official mascot has debuted as original sticker in the communication app in commemoration of the grand re-opening of Osaka International Airport, which just underwent its first major renovation in around 50 years.

The commemorative stickers feature 32 designs, ranging from those perfectly fit for greeting, daily conversation and other day-to-day use to those with Sorayan's heartwarming phrases such as "I love it/you!" and "Great work!" Other highlights include stickers with airport brand logs (KIX, ITAMI, and KOBE) and a collaboration sticker with KIX's former official mascot Kankun. Please take this opportunity to enjoy LINE chats with Sorayan message stickers.

Kansai Airports will continue to offer an exciting and enjoyable experience to all its customers.

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai International Airport (“KIX”) and Osaka International Airport (“ITAMI”) from New Kansai International Airport Company (“NKIAC”) and has been operating the two airports since April 1, 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports’ wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport (“KOBE”) from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on April 1, 2018.

Under the concept of “One Kansai Airports Group”, Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
