

Kansai Airports & J-AIR to hold 6th ITAMI Sora No Ichi Local specialties from fresh fish to fruits from all over Japan gathered at ITAMI!

Kansai Airports is delighted to announce that ITAMI Sora No Ichi, a pop-up market, will be held in collaboration with J-AIR Corporation at Osaka International Airport (ITAMI) on Saturday, March 12 and Sunday, 13, 2022.

Based at ITAMI, J-AIR operates an extensive route network, connecting Osaka to cities large and small across Japan. The regional commuter airline promotes the revitalization of regional economies through its activities such as introducing local specialties in flight and participating in local events. As part of this effort, J-AIR has been collaborating with ITAMI to provide an opportunity for airport customers to buy fresh produce and specialties that are transported by air from destinations linked to ITAMI at this “Sora No Ichi” event.

This 6th event will feature fresh fish and local specialties carefully selected by local JAL Group staff from all J-AIR destinations in Japan. On both days, all products will be shipped in the morning that day, and fresh fish, crab, shrimp, scallops, and freshly baked local bread will be sold as soon as they arrive. Furthermore, at “Osaka Kuromon-Ichiba Tuna Entoki,” an airport restaurant, you can enjoy the “Sanriku Chokusen Donburi Fair,” which uses fish freshly transported by air from Iwate Prefecture, and “Sanriku Chokusen Donburi” for to go at the event venue (numbers are limited for both eat-in and to-go).

Customers who spend ¥3,000 (including tax) or more on the day with a parking ticket will receive a one-hour free parking coupon, as well as a discount using JAL card. Come enjoy the fresh seasonal produce at ITAMI!

Kansai Airports will continue to create a new travel experience by holding exciting events for all customers.
