

DFS Group Begins Operations of Brand Boutiques at Kansai International Airport Terminal 1

On March 31, 2017, Kansai Airports signed a contract with DFS Group to operate a group of brand boutiques in Kansai International Airport Terminal 1 from April 1, 2017.

The boutiques include Bottega Veneta, Bulgari, Omega, Coach, and Tiffany & Co., that comprises the total area of 520 square meters. Kansai Airports and DFS Group also plan to develop other retail concepts in the near future in order to provide even more joyful moments to the customers.

Kansai Airports Corporate Executive Vice President (Chief Commercial Officer (Non-Aero)) Hideo Ichida said, "We are pleased to have chosen DFS Group as a new partner, one that is closely aligned with our interests. It's exciting to have another experienced international player involved in Kansai International Airport. We look forward to a strong partnership in the future."

DFS Group Chairman and CEO Philippe Schaus said, "We are excited to have this opportunity to take our first step into Kansai International Airport, one of the Japan's most important international airports and a gateway to the growing region of Kansai including Osaka and Kyoto. We look forward to working with Kansai Airports in the coming years and supporting the many exciting initiatives that they have planned to further develop the airport and contribute to the region's economic development."
