

Souvenir Shop “NOREN” to Open in Int’l Departures in KIX Terminal 2: Explore the trove for uniquely Japanese items right up until your departure

Kansai Airports announces that Japanese souvenir shop “NOREN KIX T2” will open in the international flight gate area in Terminal 2 of Kansai International Airport on Sunday, October 1, 2017.

Terminal 2 (International), launched in January, currently offers facilities in its gate area, including walk-through duty-free shops, souvenir shops, drugstores, and restaurants where travelers can enjoy Osaka or Japanese food culture. In an effort to further delight travelers with Japan’s appeal and rich culture, Kansai Airports has attracted the new shop in the gate area, which will carry a wide selection of Japan’s unique goods. Travelers will be able to spend time before flight on shopping, while feeling the atmosphere of Japan.

Kansai Airports will continue to create a comfortable and pleasant travel experience by making the shopping area more exciting for airport users.

○ Shop descriptions

What locals normally don’t even notice can be a fresh surprise for foreign visitors. NOREN offers, from the viewpoints of both foreigners and Japanese, a fine collection of gifts and souvenirs that visitors want to take back home for a perfect journey. It also provides smooth shopping experiences to its customers by displaying merchandise in a manner that customers can readily find, touch and pick up various items, as well as by using bilingual signs and adding Chinese mobile payment option “Alipay.” Some items are priced at less than 1,000 yen, catering to travelers’ needs to use leftover yen coins before departure. Drinks that can be carried on a plane also come in a wide variety. The shop also sells popular Uji matcha confectioneries and folk crafts carefully made by craftsmen and the like. More one-of-a-kind items that are only available at NOREN will be added later. CORAZON strives to better serve new and repeat customers as their reliable, last-minute shopping stop.
