

KIX wins Best Low-Cost Airline Terminal and Best baggage delivery at Skytrax 2018 World Airport Awards

Kansai Airports is delighted to announce that it was honored with two awards at UK-based aviation research firm Skytrax World Airport Awards 2018¹: Kansai International Airport was awarded "Best Airport Terminal for Low-Cost Airlines" and "Best Baggage Delivery". The Skytrax survey covers 550 airports worldwide to determine the awards.

● Best Airport Terminals for Low-Cost Airlines 2018

This award targets airport terminals dedicated to low-cost carriers. Kansai International Airport (KIX) received this award in 2015. Opened as Japan's first LCC-dedicated terminal in October 2012, Terminal 2 was expanded to provide an international passenger area in January 2017. As part of the terminal upgrade, the smart security system and a walk-through shopping area were introduced as first in Japan. The user-friendly and comfortable environment with a focus on passenger centered details such as advanced and accessible restrooms, led to this outstanding achievement.

● Best Airport Baggage Delivery 2018

This award is granted based on baggage handling performance including waiting times required for passengers to receive their baggage, the efficiency of the baggage drop and pick-up process, as well as staff responses to lost baggage. KIX has earned the award for four consecutive years since 2015. The early-adopted baggage handling system at KIX, coupled with great teamwork among airport staff including airlines and ground handling agents and their dedication made this award possible. Contributing factors also include that there has been no lost baggage at KIX since its opening and careful baggage handling by airport personnel.

"This recognition for the expansion done to Terminal 2 in 2017 as Best Low-Cost Airline Terminal and Best Baggage Delivery which has now been received for four years in a row, was achieved thanks to all airport staff's strong teamwork and dedication towards our partners and passengers. Kansai Airports will continue to focus on Shaping a New Journey for our passengers and partners by further improving ease of processes and increasing the excitement of air travel," said Representative Director Co-CEO of Kansai Airports, Emmanuel Menanteau.
