

Jeju Air to connect KIX and Muan (South Korea) with the first scheduled flights since KIX's opening

Kansai Airports is delighted to announce that Jeju Air (7C) will launch a scheduled flight service between Kansai International Airport (KIX) and Muan in South Korea on Monday, April 30, 2018 for the very first time since the opening of KIX.

Jeju Air is a South Korea-based low-cost carrier, currently serving 61 flights per week from Seoul (Incheon and Gimpo) and Busan to KIX. Muan is a port town located in the western part of South Korea and will become the third Korean destination to be connected to KIX on the back of the vigorous growth in inbound travel demand. With this newly launched service, the number of flights by Jeju Air between KIX and these three destinations will be 69 flights per week (66 flights per week after July 27, 2018).

Kansai Airports will continue to expand its network with airlines including Asian low-cost carriers to provide all airport guests with convenient, comfortable and enjoyable travel experiences.
