

Jetstar Japan to launch new daily service from KIX to Kumamoto

Kansai Airports is delighted to announce that Jetstar Japan will begin new daily service between Kansai International Airport (KIX) and Kumamoto, beginning October 27, 2018.

The airline will operate flights on the KIX-Kumamoto route for the first time in three years since March 2016. This will make Kumamoto the sixth destination added to the airline's current service from KIX to Hong Kong, Narita, Okinawa, Sapporo, and Fukuoka.

Jetstar Japan, the nation's largest budget carrier, operates over 100 daily flights with its 22 aircraft, serving more than 4.7 million passengers a year.

Kansai Airports will continue to expand both domestic and international air travel network to deliver a more convenient, pleasant and enjoyable travel experience for all passengers.

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai International Airport (“KIX”) and Osaka International Airport (“ITAMI”) from New Kansai International Airport Company (“NKIAC”) and has been operating the two airports since April 1, 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports’ wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport (“KOBE”) from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on April 1, 2018.

Under the concept of “One Kansai Airports Group”, Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
