

Vietnam Airlines to offer new route between KIX and Da Nang

Kansai Airports is pleased to announce that Vietnam Airlines (VN) will add daily flights between Kansai International Airport (KIX) and Da Nang, beginning October 28, 2018.

With this new service, Vietnam Airlines, the flag carrier of Vietnam, will launch its third destination between Vietnam and KIX, adding to the current service to Ho Chi Minh City and Hanoi.

Da Nang—Vietnam's third largest city—is one of the popular tourist attractions in the nation because of its proximity to the World Heritage sites like Hoi An Ancient Town and Complex of Huế Monuments. Thanks to its safe environment, many Japanese companies have their offices in the city, which is receiving a lot of attention both in terms of leisure and business.

Kansai Airports is committed to expanding its network including mid- to long-haul services to provide convenient, comfortable and enjoyable travel experiences for all passengers.

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai International Airport (“KIX”) and Osaka International Airport (“ITAMI”) from New Kansai International Airport Company (“NKIAC”) and has been operating the two airports since April 1, 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports’ wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport (“KOBE”) from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on April 1, 2018.

Under the concept of “One Kansai Airports Group”, Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
