

Cleaning contest to be held at KIX

- Aiming at improving staff's cleaning performance and quality -

Kansai Airports today announced that 2018 KIX Cleaning Contest will take place at Kansai International Airport (KIX) on November 12.

The contest aims to raise awareness of the importance of cleaning services among staff and improve their performance. Representatives from seven companies undertaking the services at the airport will participate in the contest to compete on performance and quality. They will test and showcase their skills developed through day-to-day work.

Cleaning services at an airport play an important role in keeping terminals clean and comfortable as well as giving passengers a positive impression of the country. By working to enhance service quality from the passengers' perspective and actively incorporating state-of-the-art technology, Kansai Airports is committed to providing a convenient, comfortable and pleasant travel experience for all airport guests.
