

Newly available Kansai Airports Calendar 2019 showcases sceneries unique to Kansai's three airports

Kansai Airports is pleased to announce that Kansai Airports Calendar 2019 will be available for sale from Saturday, November 17, 2018. The 2019 calendar is fun and rich in design thanks to the design work done by Mr. Yusuke Omae from NOTAM, a design firm which has worked on many of KIX original goods. Twenty-four photos in total exhibited on the wall and desk calendars celebrate sceneries of Kansai's three airports. They feature photogenic snapshots that many would otherwise miss in the ordinary day-to-day scenes at the airport terminal as well as aircraft photos that represent each one of the three airports.

These designs and sceneries unique to the airports will make you want to pick up a suitcase and travel to somewhere, for sure.

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai International Airport ("KIX") and Osaka International Airport ("ITAMI") from New Kansai International Airport Company ("NKIAC") and has been operating the two airports since April 1, 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports' wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport ("KOBE") from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on April 1, 2018.

Under the concept of "One Kansai Airports Group", Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
