

J's Agri Market selling Japanese fruits to open at KIX - Online pre-order service also available! -

Kansai Airports is pleased to announce that J's Agri Market, a shop selling domestically-produced agricultural products, will open in the international departure area of Terminal 1 at Kansai International Airport (KIX).

Located at the post-security area, the shop offers seasonal fruits popular among foreign visitors, such as mandarin oranges, strawberries and Shine Muscat grapes. J's Agri also has an online store, where passengers can pre-order products up to seven days before departure and pick them up at the store. This service will help foreign visitors keep their hands free while traveling around Japan.

By creating a convenient and enjoyable shopping environment, Kansai Airports will continue to provide a comfortable and pleasant travel experience for all airport guests.
