

Tsujirihei Honten to open first airport café at KIX - Enjoy matcha desserts offered by Japanese tea brand -

Kansai Airports is pleased to announce that Tsujirihei Honten KIX BLUE SKY Store will debut in the international gate area of Terminal 1 at Kansai International Airport (KIX) on Thursday, February 28, 2019.

The café will be run by an airport retail shop BLUE SKY in collaboration with Tsujirihei Honten—long-established tea brand. Founded in Kyoto in 1860, Tsujirihei Honten offers a new style of tea products responding to the needs of the day on top of its traditional offerings, gaining popularity among people of different nationalities. And this new café is its first airport outlet both at home and abroad.

Menu highlights include matcha specialties like soft-serve ice cream and parfait along with food items such as matcha-based soba noodles and curry with rice. Guests will enjoy a variety of signature options that use plentiful high-quality Uji matcha.

Kansai Airports continues to add a variety of shopping and dining options to create a pleasant and comfortable travel experience for all its customers.
