

QR code payment option to be available at KIX vending machines!

Kansai Airports is delighted to announce that WeChat Pay and Alipay will be available at some vending machines in Kansai International Airport (KIX) from September 4, 2019.

In pursuit of greater customer convenience, Kansai Airports Group has been striving to promote and introduce cashless payments at the airports. As such, the group will have vending machines at 21 locations in KIX equipped with a payment function for WeChat Pay and Alipay – China's QR code payment services.

Further, a month-long discount campaign will be carried out from September 4 to October 7 in collaboration with WeChat Pay. During the campaign period, customers will get a 50% discount on any drink purchased at QR code-enabled vending machines using WeChat Pay (see below for more details).

Kansai Airports Group is committed to actively introducing state-of-the-art technologies and services to provide a more comfortable and convenient airport experience. To do so, the group will strengthen its efforts to further promote cashless payments with an aim to meet diversifying payment needs with expanded services while providing a stress-free shopping environment for all airport guests.

KIX ITAMI KOBE

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai International Airport (“KIX”) and Osaka International Airport (“ITAMI”) from New Kansai International Airport Company (“NKIAC”) and has been operating the two airports since April 1, 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports’ wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport (“KOBE”) from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on April 1, 2018.

Under the concept of “One Kansai Airports Group”, Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
