

Notice Regarding KIX airport worker of Kansai Airports Group infected with COVID-19 (Part 2)

An employee of Kansai Airports Group was newly found to be infected with the novel coronavirus (COVID-19).

We are currently taking measures to prevent the spread of infection under the guidance of public health center.

Kansai Airports will continue its preventive measures against the virus in cooperation with the Public Health Center, Ministry of Health, Labor and Welfare and other government agencies.

[Confirmed case]

Employee profile: Man in his 40s, CKTS's staff

Travel history: No history of travel abroad in 1 year.

Job role: No contact with passengers

Employee's recent whereabouts:

April 11: due to symptoms appearance, self-quarantined at home since

April 13: took the PCR test at a medical institution

April 15: tested positive for COVID-19