

Go To campaigns at KIX, ITAMI and KOBE

Kansai Airports Group today announced that special offers of the government-backed Go To campaigns are available at applicable shops and restaurants of the three airports it operates: Kansai International Airport (KIX); Osaka International Airport (ITAMI); and Kobe Airport (KOBE). The offers include regional coupons for Go To Travel, and premium meal vouchers and online booking points for Go To Eat. With this, customers can enjoy a special shopping and dining experience in their journey. Also, a large variety of pre-security restaurants and shops participate in the campaigns, offering perfect dining and shopping options for non-passengers. Visit the special website below to find out more about participating stores and other details.

At the three airports, we have strict infection prevention measures in place with the highest priority on the safety of customers and employees in a bid to ensure peace of mind for all visitors. And as part of such safety precautions, customers are advised to wear masks when they visit the airports. Your understanding and cooperation would be highly appreciated.

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai International Airport (“KIX”) and Osaka International Airport (“ITAMI”) from New Kansai International Airport Company (“NKIAC”) and has been operating the two airports since April 1, 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports’ wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport (“KOBE”) from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on April 1, 2018.

Under the concept of “One Kansai Airports Group”, Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
