

Five airlines gather together at KIX to thank departing passengers

Kansai Airports is pleased to announce that it will hold a special event to send off passengers together with five airlines operating domestic flights at Kansai International Airport (KIX).

The event, proposed by airline staff, is aimed at revitalizing the airport that has seen reduced flights and fewer passengers amid the COVID-19 pandemic. In addition, it is intended to express gratitude to passengers using the airport.

While cooperating with its partners, Kansai Airports is committed to creating a safe, comfortable, and pleasant travel experience for all guests to make the airport as a destination in itself.

- Date & Time: Friday, November 20, 2020
- Location: Aprons of applicable flights
- Description: Five airlines' ground staff will send off departing passengers near the aircraft, using special banners, etc.
