Kansai Airports Group is excited to announce that its Official Digital Calendar 2021 is available for free online beginning November 25, 2020.

With the widespread use of computers and smartphones, coupled with a shift to remote work, digital calendars have become increasingly popular in recent years. Our calendar, featuring beautiful sceneries of the three airports in Kansai, can be easily downloaded from our website and offers a perfect idea for the wallpaper for your computer and mobile devices.

Amid the pandemic, international travel continues to be restricted around the world. The calendar was designed with our earnest wish to deliver a moment to enjoy picturesque scenes of the airports and aircraft and think of open sky in your everyday life.

Furthermore, at Kansai Airports Online Store, a range of campaigns are set to be launched for this coming festive season, adding a variety to its regular lineup which includes the three airports' unique items, aviation-inspired products, merchandise featuring Sorayan—Kansai Airports Group's official mascot character, and more.

Kansai Airports Group will continue to leverage digital technologies to spread the appeals of the airports and aircraft to a broader range of people.
