Kansai Airports is partnering with J-AIR Corporation once again to hold the 2nd ITAMI Sora No Ichi, or a pop-up market, at Osaka International Airport (ITAMI) on April 4, 2021.

J-AIR, an ITAMI-based regional commuter airline, operates an extensive route network, connecting Osaka to cities large and small across Japan. The airline is making various efforts to stimulate regional economies, such as introducing local specialties in flight and participating in community events. Following the enormous success of the previous event, the upcoming market will offer a wider selection and volume of fresh fruits, vegetables and local specialties from seven prefectures (Fukuoka, Saga, Nagasaki, Kumamoto, Oita, Miyazaki, Kagoshima) in Kyushu, Yamaguchi Prefecture and more. The offerings will include strawberries, watermelons, bananas, Citrus natsudaidai, biwa (loquats), asparagus, Hakata Bannonegi (green onions), bell peppers, and tomatoes. On top of this, authentic natural wines will be offered by Miyazaki-based Katsuki Wines, which produces wines, without antioxidants and other additives, from grapes they organically grow on their own.

Not only that, the first 100 people to make a purchase of 3,000 yen (including tax) or more will receive a voucher worth 500 yen for future shopping in ITAMI. A one-hour free parking ticket will also be given to each customer visiting the airport by car with a purchase of 3,000 yen (including tax) or more.
