

First Cabin Kansai Airport to resume operation

Kansai Airports today announced that First Cabin Kansai Airport will resume operation from May 11, 2021, after its business closure since April last year.

Inspired by first-class air travel, First Cabin is a cabin-style hotel featuring small yet private guest rooms. With a wide range of facilities and services running 24/7, including a lounge and a large public bath, it offers a comfortable stay for customers taking an early-morning or late-night flight and those laying over for a connecting flight.

Kansai Airports will continue to boost convenience and improve services to provide comfortable and exciting travel experiences for all airport guests.

Shaping a New Journey

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai International Airport (“KIX”) and Osaka International Airport (“ITAMI”) from New Kansai International Airport Company (“NKIAC”) and has been operating the two airports since April 1, 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports’ wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport (“KOBE”) from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on April 1, 2018.

Under the concept of “One Kansai Airports Group”, Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
