

Kansai Airports & J-AIR to hold 3rd Sora no Ichi - A taste of fresh produce from Hokkaido and Aomori coming to ITAMI! -

Kansai Airports is partnering with J-AIR Corporation once again to hold the 3rd ITAMI Sora no Ichi, or a pop-up market, at Osaka International Airport (ITAMI) on July 22, 2021.

Based at ITAMI, J-AIR serves an extensive flight network, connecting Osaka to cities large and small across Japan. The regional commuter airline takes various approaches toward revitalization of regional economies, such as introducing local specialties in flight and participating in community events. As part of their efforts, at the 1st and 2nd ITAMI Sora no Ichi, local produce from destinations linked to ITAMI were transported by air to be sold in a fresh state.

Featuring Hokkaido and Aomori, the upcoming market will offer a wide variety of much-loved delicacy and seasonal fruits and vegetables carefully selected by local staff of the JAL Group. Also, this time, limited-edition goods produced through collaboration between J-AIR and Sorayan—Kansai Airports Group's official mascot character—will be added to the offering.

Not only that, the first 100 people to make a purchase of 3,000 yen (including tax) or more will receive a voucher worth 500 yen for future shopping in ITAMI. A one-hour free parking ticket will also be given to each customer visiting the airport by car with a purchase of 3,000 yen (including tax) or more. Don't miss the chance to savor a taste of fresh local produce!

Kansai Airports will continue to provide a new travel experience through exciting events for all customers.
