

KIX, ITAMI, and KOBE to take part in JATA's international travel restart project

Kansai Airports Group is excited to announce that it will carry out a promotional campaign between July 15 and 29 to build momentum toward the resumption of overseas travel, as part of the international travel restart project run by the Japan Association of Travel Agents (JATA).

Participated by a total of 57 travel agencies, airlines, and other organizations nationwide, the project aims to promote domestically the full-scale resumption of international travel as border restrictions are relaxed across Europe and the rest of the world.

The event at the three airports in Kansai will include distribution of free samples, Twitter hashtag campaign, and promotions using digital displays in the terminal building.

Kansai Airports Group will continue to cooperate with its partners to create a comfortable and enjoyable travel experience for all airport guests.
