

Airlines in Kobe Airport & Kansai Airports to hold an anniversary event for the release of collaboration goods!

Kansai Airports Kobe is happy to announce that it will hold an anniversary event for the release of collaboration goods at Kobe Airport (KOBE) on July 31 (Sun.) with airlines operating at KOBE.

KOBE has now begun selling original goods in collaboration with the airlines in service. To commemorate this, we will hold an anniversary event with the collaboration goods sales, booth exhibits by the airlines, fairs, raffles, and other activities. On the day of the event, a photo session also will be held with Kansai Airports' official character "Sorayan" and AIRDO's mascot "Bear Do". We will bring cheer to everyone, together with the airlines! Please take this opportunity to visit KOBE.

Kansai Airports Group will continue to create a new travel experience by holding exciting events for all customers.

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai International Airport (“KIX”) and Osaka International Airport (“ITAMI”) from New Kansai International Airport Company (“NKIAC”) and has been operating the two airports since April 1, 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports’ wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport (“KOBE”) from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on April 1, 2018.

Under the concept of “One Kansai Airports Group”, Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
