

Kobe Airport To donate chemical fire engine to Tanna Airport, Republic of Vanuatu

Kansai Airports Kobe is delighted to announce the donation of a chemical fire engine (former No. 3 retired in FY2021) to the Tanna Airport of the Republic of Vanuatu in the South Pacific Ocean on Tuesday, December 13.

This project, including the donation of a fire engine and on-site training, is implemented by the Japan Diplomatic Association under the scheme “Grant Assistance for Grassroots Human Security Projects” of the Japanese Government’s Official Development Assistance.

In conjunction with the donation, a departure ceremony of the engine was held with the attendance of Kansai Airports Kobe, the Japan Diplomatic Association, the Port Authority of Kobe City, Senon Limited and other stakeholders of Kobe Airport. In response to a request for technical assistance from the Japan Diplomatic Association and the Japanese Embassy in Vanuatu, we will dispatch instructors to Tanna Airport with Senon Limited around February 2023.

Kansai Airports Group will continue to work with all stakeholders to promote these initiatives and contribute to the realization of a sustainable society.

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai International Airport (“KIX”) and Osaka International Airport (“ITAMI”) from New Kansai International Airport Company (“NKIAC”) and has been operating the two airports since April 1, 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports’ wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport (“KOBE”) from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on April 1, 2018.

Under the concept of “One Kansai Airports Group”, Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
