

First in Japanese airport! Hometown tax donation program “Furusato Nōzei” on a vending machine at KIX!

Kansai Airports is delighted to announce the installation of a "hometown tax vending machine" (the "Furusato Nozei Vending Machine") for Izumisano City, Osaka Prefecture, on Friday, December 23, 2022, at Hotel Nikko Kansai Airport in Kansai International Airport (KIX).

This is the first installation of the Furusato Nozei Vending Machine at any airport in Japan and in Osaka Prefecture. The vending machine will allow you to receive and use the gift immediately after your donation. The return gifts are vouchers for Hotel Nikko Kansai Airport accommodation and restaurants. The attraction of this system is that you can easily pay hometown tax on the spot when you use the airport and can use the return gift immediately at the hotel or restaurant.

Kansai Airports Group will continue to collaborate with local governments around the airports and airport-related businesses to revitalize local communities and bring the charm of the airport and travel to as many people as possible.

Shaping a New Journey

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai International Airport (“KIX”) and Osaka International Airport (“ITAMI”) from New Kansai International Airport Company (“NKIAC”) and has been operating the two airports since April 1, 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports’ wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport (“KOBE”) from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on April 1, 2018.

Under the concept of “One Kansai Airports Group”, Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
