KIX DUTY FREE, a general duty-free shop at Kansai International Airport to open on December 5!

Pre-order website offers greater convenience and comfortable shopping experience!

Kansai Airports is delighted to announce that KIX DUTY FREE, a core duty-free shop in the new Terminal 1 international airside area, will open on December 5 along with its renewed pre-order service.

KIX DUTY FREE is the largest walk-through duty-free store in Japanese international airports. You will see the shop on your way to the boarding gates after the departure immigration. The shop is divided into four categories (perfume and cosmetics, liquor, tobacco, and confectionery), zoned according to a specific design concept, that creates space where customers can enjoy a sense of excitement with a hint of Japanese taste.

Furthermore, the shop offers a wide range of brands and extensive product lineup, where customers from all nationalities can enjoy a diverse range of domestic and international brands. A variety of popular and trending brands and products will be available, including long-established Japanese sake brewers and brands making their first appearance in an airport duty-free shop in Japan. There will be event spaces throughout the shop to introduce new and recommended products as well as seasonal displays.

Prior to the opening, KIX DUTY FREE pre-order website was renewed on November 21. The website offers enriched contents such as larger selection of products and online-only promotions. KIX DUTY FREE will provide customers with a worthwhile and enhanced shopping experience through a rich variety of attractions, enjoyable shop space, and convenient, comfortable services.

The Kansai Airports Group will continue to enhance its stores and services at each airport to satisfy many customers.
