Thanksgiving Festival for the Kobe Airport's 18th Anniversary!!

Kansai Airports Kobe is delighted to announce the "Thanksgiving Festival for the Kobe Airport's 18th Anniversary" at Kobe Harborland umie and Kobe Airport (KOBÉ) on February 17 and 18, as KOBÉ will commemorate the 18th anniversary on February 16, 2024.

At Kobe Harborland umie, kids, adults and everyone can enjoy local products from the destinations from KOBÉ, tourism promotion booths, airlines booths, and workshops. At KOBÉ, "Airport Bus Tour" will take participants to the areas usually off-limits to passengers, such as the runway and the roads encompassing the airport.

Kansai Airports Group will continue to convey the attractions of the airports and destinations to more people through initiatives our customers can enjoy.

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai International Airport ("KIX") and Osaka International Airport ("ITAMI") from New Kansai International Airport Company ("NKIAC") and has been operating the two airports since April 1, 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports' wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport ("KOBE") from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on April 1, 2018.

Under the concept of "One Kansai Airports Group", Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
