

Win the ticket to the exhibition, "Parallel Lives: Susumu Shingu + Renzo Piano"

Kansai Airports is happy to announce that we hold a "Follow-us-on-Twitter campaign" to celebrate the opening of the exhibition "Parallel Lives: Susumu Shingu + Renzo Piano" featuring Susumu Shingu and Renzo Piano, two artists who have strong ties to Kansai International Airport.

Following the Twitter account of "Sorayan," the official character of Kansai Airports Group, and retweeting the campaign tweet during this campaign period, you can join the lottery to win tickets to the exhibition.

Kansai Airports Group will continue our efforts to deliver the charm of airports and travel to as many people as possible through initiatives that familiarize people with the airports.

Susumu Shingu and Renzo Piano

Susumu Shingu, a prestigious Japanese artist, created "Boundless Sky" on the international departure floor, Level 4 of Kansai International Airport Terminal 1. Renzo Piano, a leading Italian architect, designed and built the Kansai International Airport Terminal 1 building.

The two talents, both born in 1937, first collaborated at Kansai International Airport and have completed various projects over the past 30 years up to the present day.

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai International Airport ("KIX") and Osaka International Airport ("ITAMI") from New Kansai International Airport Company ("NKIAC") and has been operating the two airports since April 1, 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports' wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport ("KOBE") from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on April 1, 2018.

Under the concept of "One Kansai Airports Group", Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
