“Spark joy! Taiwan!” Tourism event in Kobe Airport!

Kansai Airports and Kansai Airports Kobe are excited to announce a Taiwan tourism event, “Spark joy!! Taiwan!” at Kobe Airport on Saturday, October 5, 2024. This event marks the first event for overseas tourism at Kobe Airport.

The event will feature a Taiwan tourism seminar to build momentum for travel to Taiwan, a pop-up store by “Maji Treats,” a popular lifestyle store in Taiwan, and PR booths by airlines and travel agencies. You can also participate in a stamp rally. Taiwan, two and a half hours away from Kansai, offers a rich tapestry of traditional culture. This event will be a great opportunity for visitors to experience its charms.

Kansai Airports Group will continue to spread the charm of the airports and the joy of travel to all visitors through various activities.

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai International Airport (“KIX”) and Osaka International Airport (“ITAMI”) from New Kansai International Airport Company (“NKIAC”) and has been operating the two airports since April 1, 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports’ wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport (“KOBE”) from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on April 1, 2018.

Under the concept of “One Kansai Airports Group”, Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
