TOKI AIR Launches New Service to Kobe Airport!

Four Weekly Flights Between Kobe and Niigata Starting March 30

Kansai Airports Kobe is excited to announce that TOKI AIR (BV) will commence four weekly flights between Kobe and Niigata starting March 30, 2025. TOKI AIR, a regional carrier based in Niigata Prefecture, is providing various domestic flights with the “aim to invigorate local industries through innovative mobility services.” This marks TOKI AIR's inaugural service to Kobe Airport.

Niigata Prefecture, located along the Sea of Japan, is renowned for its rice production, sake, and stunning coastlines and mountains that offer seasonal beauty. The introduction of this new route will enhance Kobe Airport's air network and improve access to Niigata's attractive tourist destinations.

Kansai Airports Group remains committed to expanding its air network, enhancing travel comfort, and improving customer convenience.

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai International Airport (“KIX”) and Osaka International Airport (“ITAMI”) from New Kansai International Airport Company (“NKIAC”) and has been operating the two airports since April 1, 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports’ wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport (“KOBÉ”) from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on April 1, 2018.

Under the concept of “One Kansai Airports Group”, Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
