Kansai Airports is excited to announce the "TABIHAKU (Travel Expo) Photo Contest," which will be held as part of the "TABIHAKU 2025 in Umeda" on May 24, 2025, at Grand Front Osaka.

Participants are invited to submit their travel photos from past trips. The top 12 photos will be selected through an online vote and displayed at the Travel Expo. A final run-off vote will take place on the day of the TABIHAKU at the venue to determine the winner. The grand prize winner will receive a meal voucher worth 30,000 yen for Hotel Nikko Kansai Airport and Kansai International Airport novelty items. Additionally, 20 voters who select the grand prize winner will also receive Kansai International Airport novelty items.

Kansai Airports Group remains committed to engaging the public and promoting interest in airports and travel through various initiatives and events.

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai Itami Airport ("KIX") and Osaka International Airport ("ITAMI") from New Kansai International Airport Company ("NKIAC") and has been operating the two airports since April 1, 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports' wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport ("KOBE") from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on April 1, 2018.

Under the concept of "One Kansai Airports Group", Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
