Renovation of KIX T2 Domestic

Kansai Airports is pleased to announce the renovation of Terminal 2 (T2), the domestic area, at Kansai International Airport (KIX) in preparation for future growth in air traffic.

Opened in October 2012, T2 is Japan's first dedicated terminal for a low-cost carrier, LCC, and is currently utilized for all domestic flights operated by Peach Aviation Limited. The renovation is scheduled to begin in August 2025 and end in spring 2026. It aims to enhance the passenger experience by promoting self-service check-in and expanding the boarding area, enabling a faster and more stress-free airport journey.

Kansai Airports Group will work closely with stakeholders to further enhance the airport's role as a gateway to the Kansai region.

Overview:

- Construction Start: August 2025
- Scheduled Opening: Spring 2026 (tentative)
- Renovation Area: KIX T2 Domestic
- Scope of Renovation: Installation of Self Bag Drop (10 units)
Installation of smart security lanes (20 m × 3 lanes),
Renewal of waiting and commercial areas (the boarding area to be expanded by approx. 20%), etc.

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai International Airport ("KIX") and Osaka Itami Airport ("ITAMI") from New Kansai International Airport Company ("NKIAC") and has been operating the two airports since 1 April 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports' wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport ("KOBE") from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on 1 April 2018.

Under the concept of "One Kansai Airports Group", Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
