“Sky Day Event 2025” at Kobe Airport!

Kansai Airports Kobe is excited to announce the Sky Day Event 2025 on 19 October at Kobe Airport, observing the Sky Day on 20 September, and invites you to explore and learn about the airport and aircraft.

The airlines operating at Kobe Airport will set up exhibition booths, offer various merchandise and workshops, provide various opportunities, such as, to experience airport jobs as well as a bus tour around the airport and airfields that are usually off-limits to public.

In addition, this year we are also expecting the participation of organizations related to operations of international flights, including airlines operating international charter flights and Kobe Customs. Kansai Airports Group is continuously working to share the charms of the airports and the aviation with our customers through exciting initiatives and events.

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai Itami Airport ("KIX") and Osaka Itami Airport ("ITAMI") from New Kansai International Airport Company ("NKIAC") and has been operating the two airports since 1 April 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports' wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport ("KOBE") from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on 1 April 2018.

Under the concept of "One Kansai Airports Group", Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
